ALEXANDRIA, VA.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1870

There was considerable objection, yesterday, made to the "swearing in," of Connor, one of the recently elected members of the House of Representatives, from Texas, on the ground that "he was a worthless fellow!" The objection was overruled-of course:-Connor was sworn in. He was allowed to make a personal explanation, in which he said that Gen. Butler had mistaken his vocation, and would make a better low comedian than a statesman. The Speaker called Connor to order, and the latter took back the offensive words. Thereupon, Mr. Shanks, of Indiana, asserted positively that Connor was worthless; and thereat the Speaker rapped for order. Mr. Shanks apologized to the House, but declined to beg the member's pardon, who is in bad repute, it seems, generally.

There were great rejoicings in several cities at the North, Philadelphia, Newark, Albany, Hartford, &c., on account of the proclamation aunouncing the ratification of the Fitteenth Amendment. In Washington, yesterday, the Fire Department was called out, by ringing of bells, blowing of whistles, &c , and the President was cheered.

THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE LAND FUND .- Without intending to be ungracious, we may say that three hundred thousand acres of wild public land is a small fund for so large a State as Virginia; when it is remembered, too, that she gave away, without any "reserve," more square miles of better land then are now available, she might be permitted to ask, and get, at least three millions of acres for school and college pur-

When the Legislature gets through the election of judges, it would be well for it to con sider the propriety of the passage of a joint resolution petitioning Congress to grant the State at least three millions acres of land-one half for common schools, and the other half for the higher schools, of the State. Waiting for this with hope, which may be deferred until the heart sickens, the fund already granted may be attended to .- Richmond

NEWS OF THE DAY.

To show the very age and body of the Times.

In the Supreme Court yesterday Attorney Gen. Hoar delivered an argument in favor of reopening the legal tender decision, taking the ground that that decision was make when there ing the court is fixed for the second Monday were two vacancies on the beech, and that the decision was reached by only one majority. Mr. Cartisle replied, maintaining they had nothing to do with majorities making up decisions, and to West Virginia to settle the debt question, decisions be reopened and reviewed. The Court announced that it would consider the request of the Attorney General.

The steamer Camilla, which arrived at New York on Wednesday, brought the passengers of the steamer Venezuelean, from Liverpool for Aspinwall. The Venezuelean was intercepted at sea, disabled. The crew remained on board to work the steamer to port, but as heavy gales have prevailed since, it is not thought probable the steamer can weather them. The crew remaining on board numbered forty-four person?.

To-day Secretary Boutwell will show the greatest reduction of the National debt that has been made during any month since the present Administration took office. Receipts have been large, expenses correspondingly light, and we may have it reported that for the last thirty days between fifteen and seventeen millions et dollars have been subtracted from the debt.

The Cunard steamship Java, which arrived at New York Wednesday, brought the largest mail ever received in that port from Europe. It comprised two hundred and sixty-eight bags, each bag containing an average of two bushels of mail matter. This mail included both the mail of the Java and that of the Samaria, which put back disabled.

SENATOR LEWIS'S POSITION. - The report of the remarks of Senator Lawis at the late meeting of the Republican committees, in Richmond, and published in the papers of that city, having been severely criticised and unanimeusly condemned by the conservative papers of the State, that gentleman requests us to say, for him, that the language at tributed to him on that ceeasion "has been misunderstood or wilfully misrepresented.' He avers that he "never meant to coovey any other idea than the one expressed-that the safety of the Union men as a party, depended sucs, a proclamation this evening, saying his on the union of all the elements of opposition

He further said, that "it would be a dark day for Virginia, when the rebel Democracy got possession of the State." These remarks of Mr. Lewis, he assures us, were intended to occur. It is supposed that when Ellyson holds have an exclusively political, and not personal his Court to morrow the U. S. authorities will or social, application to the Union men in the arrest him, which is the manner in which his State. Mr. Lewis has often expressed the opinion, and has not sought to disguise it, the case before the Supreme Court. Ellyson's that "a Union man's person was as safe in police still have control of the city. Virginia as in Massachusetts.'

In this connection, we must be permitted to say, that we think the attempt to unite "all the elements in opposition to the Democracy, for the avowed purpose of placing the government of the State, from its chief executive head down to the most insignificant township officer, under the control of a party, a large majority of whom have no substantial interest or real sympathy with the people-call them the "rebel Democracy," or by any other savory name-as uncalled for, unwise, and impolitie at this time. - Rockingham County Old Commonwealth

Scene at the White House.-There was quiet a gathering in the ante room of the White House when the Fifteenth Amendment message and proclamation were signed, half the number, however, being newspaper men. An attache of a Washington newspaper begged the President for the pen with which the donen ment were signed, and it was handed him. A venerable old gentleman who was in the crowd cried out, when the announcement was made that the blacks could now vote everywhere: "Well, gentlemen, you'll all be damn sorry for this!" The speaker was Dent, senior, the father in law tot the President. - Wash. Cor. of the Balt. Suu.

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette. RICHMOND, March 31. - In the Senate, to day, a bill to provide for a general election in the State was introduced and referred.

A bill fixing the terms of the Hustings court of Alexandria was passed. The time for holdin each month, the judge to designate at which terms he will try civil and criminal cases. Bills for the payment of the commissioners that much trouble would arise should former and fixing the per diem of members of the Legislature, were passed. The latter bill fixes the per diem of members at $6. The bill fixing the salaries of county judges was taken up and considered until the hour of adjournment. So far as agreed upon the mini mum salary is $800, with $25 additional for every 1,000 of population over 8,000, and the maximum $1,200.

The House passed with various amendments the Registration bill, which goes back to the Senate for concurrence.

Judge Underwood this morning gave an opinion in the now famous injunction case of Chahoon vs. Ellyson, in which he decides every point taken by the Chahoon party in their favor. | For further particulars see article in another column, headed the Difficulties in Richmond.

Chahoon has issued his proclamation, setting forth that Judge Underwood having decided the controversy between himself and Mr. Ellyson, in his favor, he, Chahoon, shall exereise the functions of the office of Mayor until an election shall be held, &c.

The decision instead of adjusting matters, has rather complicated affairs, and it is thought that the military will be called upon to interfere, in which case another disturbance is not impossible. There is much feeling manifested and little else is talked of here.

The impression seems to be that Mr. Ellyson will not be arrested, as in that case he could apply to the Supreme Court, but that he will be ultimately ejected from his office.

Foreign News.

The British House of Lords yesterday discussed the provisions of the bill for the enforcement of the laws in Ireland, and it was passed. In the House of Commons the Irish Land bill was discussed.

The departure of the troops and steel battery, just organized for operations in the Red River country, will be delayed for a few days. The resson for this is that a delegation from that settlement is now on the way to lay an explanation of the situation of affairs before the Government authorities, and no election will be taken until the delegation can be heard. The flow of specie to the Bank of England has been unusually heavy, the amount on hand being £552,000 sterling greater than at a corresponding time last week. The cargo of horses, cattle and sheep which arrived a day or two ago from the Argentine Republic were sold at Falmouth yesterday. The prices realized were very unsatisfactory. The animals were sound but in poor condition. The undertaking was a mere experiment. M. Emile Offivier has received the Grand

It is asserted that the Ecumenical

Council will immediately commence the discussion of the Schema of Infallibility. In that case the French Ambassadar will not return to Rome.

The Richmond Difficulty.

RICHMOND, March 31,-Judge Underwood to day granted an injunction restraining Ellyson from acting as Mayor. He also refused an appeal, on the ground that the injunction was temporary, to continue only until the next term. Mayer Ellyson's counsel gave notice of their intention to disobey the order of the Court, in order to cause the arrest of Ellyson, and then bring his case before the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus. The Judge in his deeision declares the Enabling act passed by the Legislature unconstitutional, which decision affects nearly all the officers in the State.

The injunction granted in the morning was issued in the afternoon to Mayor Ellyson, the City Council and the police, but they went on with the city affairs as usual. Chahoon ispolice force will be promptly reorganized, and requesting the persons appointed by Mayor counsel hope by a writ of habeas corpus to get
